PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 106th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

Vol. 145

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1999

No. 25

House of Representatives

The House met at 10 a.m.

The Chaplain, Reverend James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

Your word, O God, tells us that we should do the works of justice and that we should love mercy. In the quiet of this prayer we admit our own willfulness can sometimes get in the way of Your loving spirit and our own self-centeredness can hinder generosity and forgiveness. We know that it is in the nature of things that we get so involved in our tasks and our eyes do not always look to the heavens for wisdom and vision and strength, but we pray this day that Your spirit will lift our spirits so that justice and mercy will roll down as waters and righteousness like an everflowing stream. Amen.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

A message in writing from the President of the United States was communicated to the House by Mr. Sherman Williams, one of his secretaries.

THE ISSUE IS SAFETY ON NUCLEAR WASTE STORAGE

(Mr. GIBBONS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GIBBONS. Madam Speaker, the issue of nuclear waste is simply one of the safety. H.G. Wells once said that human history becomes more and more a race between education and catastrophe. Let me say that nothing in the history of mankind has withstood the test of time and the construction of 10,000 years.

What was state-of-the-art technology and engineered safe as late as 1970 has often been shown and proven to be an unsafe solution today. Americans should never allow short-term safety issues that are as serious as nuclear waste to become long-term problems hundreds of years from now.

I believe that standards based on sound science, along with the protection, the safety and the welfare of this Nation's citizens, should be the fundamental threshold when we address nuclear waste storage. H.R. 45, the Nuclear Waste Policy Act of 1999, will mandate upon the State of Nevada and this Nation the most environmentally egregious and deadly decree, a death sentence that preempts the National Environmental Policy Act, the Safe Drinking Water Act, and any other Federal, State, or local laws that may be inconsistent with this bill.

Vote "no" on H.R. 45.

INCENTIVES

(Mr. KUCINICH asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KUCINICH. Madam Speaker, today we will be considering H.R. 391, the Small Business Paperwork Reduction Act Amendments. This bill is strongly opposed by the administration, and four department heads will recommend a veto if the bill is passed in its current form.

The concern stems from a provision that bars agencies from assessing civil penalties for most first-time paperwork violations. This provision allows businesses one free violation, even when the violation is intentional. This sets up a bizarre circumstance where bad-faith actors would have little or no incentive to comply with paperwork requirements. They would know that once caught, they could not be fined.

When bad-faith actors do not file paperwork, it is extremely difficult for the government to detect illegal activity. The government would not be able to identify businesses that are putting workers, consumers, and seniors in jeopardy.

I will be offering an amendment that will provide penalty relief for first-time violators without giving an across-the-board waiver to those who intentionally violate the law. If my amendment is adopted, the veto threat will likely be dropped and the bill can become law. I urge Members' support for my amendment to H.R. 391.

TRIBUTE TO SUSAN B. ANTHONY

(Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. ROS-LEHTINEN. Madam Speaker, this Monday will mark the 179th anniversary of the birth of Susan B. Anthony, a prominent figure in our Nation's history whose influence has been as remarkable as any President of the United States. Susan B. Anthony's lifelong work to ensure equal rights for women and essentially equal rights for all mankind can never be forgotten nor understated.

However, some choose to ignore how her struggle to obtain equal rights also included the rights of the unborn. To
